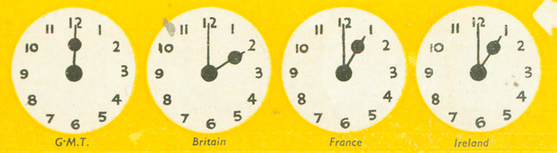
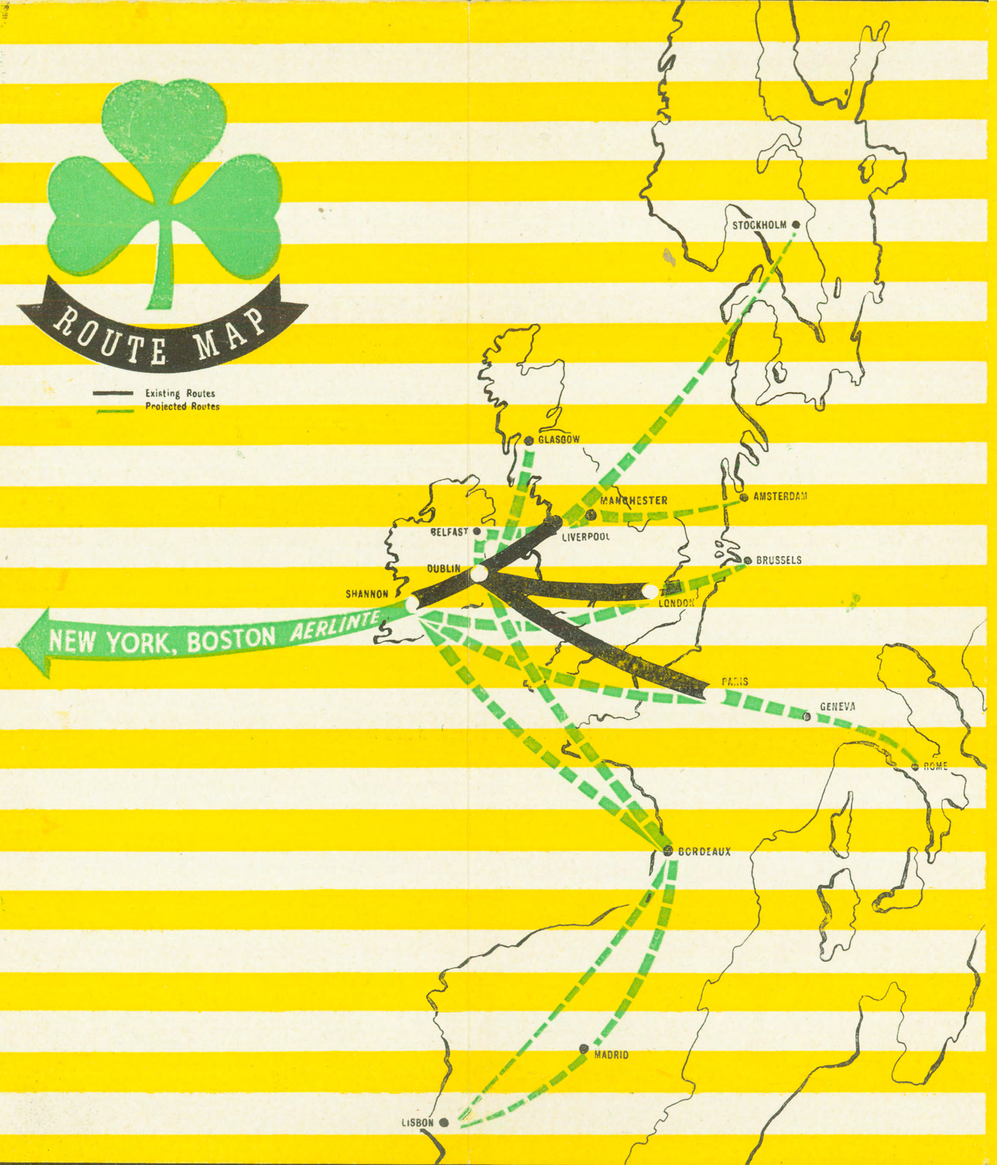
Passengers are requested to report to departure points 20 minutes before departure times



Passengers are reminded that all times shown are Greenwich Mean Time and that it is necessary to convert to local time. As these clocks indicate, add 2 hours to convert to local British time and 1 hour to convert to local French and Irish time.

Waltham Watch Time IS THE OFFICIAL TIME OF AER LINGUS



GENERAL INFORMATION

ASSEMBLY : Passengers must assemble at City Terminal or Airport twenty minutes before scheduled departure of coach or aircraft to complete baggage registration and other formalities. Services cannot be delayed for passengers who arrive late.

ANIMALS : Dogs, cats, birds or animals of any description cannot be carried in the passenger cabin, but can be accepted as freight on most services and by special arrangement.

BREAK OF JOURNEY : Permitted provided the passenger states his wishes at the time of booking and purchases an entire through ticket.

CANCELLATIONS : If notice of cancellation of booking is received not less than 48 hours before flight departure time, the full fare may be refunded, less cost of any telephone or telegram services rendered to the passenger. If notice of cancellation is received less than 48 hours before flight departure time no refund will be made unless the seat is resold or the flight is not fully booked in which case the fare may be refunded less a fee of 5/- to cover normal expenses, plus the cost of any telephone or telegram services rendered to the passenger. Passengers failing to comply with Customs and Immigration regulations and thereby precluded from travelling may incur a forfeiture of the full fare. The Company reserves the right to cancel any flight without prior notice and the passenger's sole redress shall be a refund of the unused fare.

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE : The attention of passengers and consignors is directed to the Company's Conditions of Carriage, a copy of which is displayed at the Aer Lingus Offices and Airports, an extract from which appears on every air ticket, baggage check or consignment note.

CURRENCY RESTRICTIONS : Consult your bankers well in advance of the date of travel for information on currency restriction.

FARES : All fares are subject to alteration without notice. Fares include transportation between Airport and City Terminal except where otherwise indicated.

GRATUITIES : Aer Lingus staff are not allowed to accept gratuities.

INSURANCE : Personal insurance may be effected if required. Particulars are available from Aer Lingus Traffic Offices on request.

INTERCHANGEABILITY : Air tickets may be exchanged for rail and steamer tickets (and vice versa) between certain stations in England and Ireland. Details obtainable from Booking Offices or Travel Agents.

PASSPORTS, VISAS, CERTIFICATES OF HEALTH : Passengers must be in possession of all valid documents required by the laws of countries, from, into, or over which they intend to fly. Consult Aer Lingus, a Travel Agent or the Consulates of such countries before requesting reservations.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES : A list of articles prohibited from carriage may be inspected at any of the Company's Offices or Airports.

RESERVATIONS : Bookings should be made well in advance through any of the Company's Traffic Offices or a Travel Agent. Reservations will not be regarded as definite until the full fare is paid. There are no booking fees, but the cost of any special telephone or telegram services will be borne by the passengers.

REFUNDS : The Company does not undertake to make any return to passengers of the value of lost, mislaid, or unused tickets or of any fares charged in consequence of a passenger's failure to produce his ticket when required. Application for refund should be made to issuing Travel Agent or to Aer Lingus, Refunds Section, Traffic Department, 39, Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin, within a period of 30 days from the date of travel.

SCHEDULES : Timetables are subject to alteration or cancellation without notice.

VALIDITY OF TICKETS : Single tickets are valid only for the date and service endorsed on them. Validity of return tickets expires 60 days after the date of outward journey.
