Announcing—The Fairchild Friendship

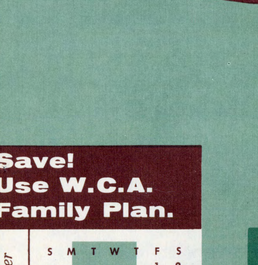
COMING SOON—West Coast Airlines has announced purchase of at least six of America's first twin prop-jet transport, the Fairchild F-27—the high-wing tricycle-gear "Friendship." West Coast thus will become the first of the nation's local service airlines to fly the F-27.

Save! Use W.C.A. Family Plan.



West Coast's "Family Plan" days shaded in green.

THE COVER PICTURE

West Coast Airlines, "Serving Paul Bunyan's Empire" in the far Northwest corner of the nation, flies one of the most concentrated but varied scenic routes among the 14 local service airlines. Starting with Pacific Ocean beaches and moving inland to Puget Sound, or along the mighty Columbia River, the scenery covered in a single day is as spectacular as any, and many airline passengers from the East take a trip on West Coast Airlines to enjoy a "Paul Bunyan-size look" at the Pacific Northwest.

A chain of a dozen mountain peaks of volcanic origin, led by famous Mt. Rainier, splits WCA's route North and South, and the ranges of the Olympics and the Cascades make the convenience of air travel a necessity for the communities involved.

Here one of WCA's fleet of 14 Douglas DC-3's, which fly 10,000 total miles a day in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, spreads its wings over the Olympic Mountains, America's Last Frontier.
