DISCOVER PLEASURE TREASURES OF ALL THE EXCITING BAHAMAS

NASSAU, Resort Capital of the Bahamas, justly-famed for superb hotels, sophisticated night life, picture-book Paradise Beach, yachting, fishing, sightseeing in quaint surreys! By all means, come to Nassau — but remember, Nassau should be but the beginning of your fun! The incredibly beautiful Out Islands offer unspoiled pleasure treasures for the knowing traveler. On the next page, read about other fabled vacation isles awaiting your delighted discovery!

YOU'LL NEVER BE NEARER THAN WHEN YOU'RE IN NASSAU

about 60 miles east of Palm Beach, is one of the largest islands. The two major towns are West End on the western tip, and Freeport, towards the center, with a rapidly developing resort and residential area between. Attractions include miles of beautiful beaches, excellent hotels (including the largest in the Bahamas), golf course, marinas, superb offshore, reef, and bone fishing.

BIMINI, slightly south of Grand Bahama and 50 miles east of Miami, is the closest of the Bahamas. On the edge of the Gulf Stream, it is world-famed for big-game fishing. Picturesque Alice Town has charming palm-lined lanes. Several excellent resorts offer pools, tennis, and other diversions.

ABACO (Great and Little Abaco) is the northernmost major Bahama island, lying just west of Grand Bahama. Many early settlers were Loyalists from the American colonies, and their speech still shows traces of Elizabethan accents. Green Turtle Cay has rolling hills, the air of a New England fishing village, several inns and cottage-groups. Marsh Harbour offers a beautiful beach, 22-room club, and water taxi to nearby Hope Town with its spectacular lighthouse, and to Man O' War Cay world-renown for fine, native-crafted boats.

ANDROS, largest of the Bahamas, lies but 20 miles west of Nassau. The Western Hemisphere's largest coral reef rims the west coast, accounting for superlative fishing. Pine and mahogany cover provides excellent hunting. Andros Town is a favorite haven for yachtsmen and fishermen, has luxurious facilities. Pot Cay to the south is famed for bonefishing and hunting, has cottages and club.

ELEUTHERA, with richly varied, rolling scenery, lies just south and east of Nassau. Settlers from England established a remarkable democracy there in 1647, earning a niche in history. Increasingly favored by the well-to-do international set, Eleuthera has unique pure-pink sand beaches and picturesque settlements such as Rock Sound with oceanfront golf course, elegant clubhouse, pool, and accommodations, Governor's Harbour on a hill overlooking a harbor with fine accommodations, and Harbour Island with outstanding fishing.

THE EXUMAS, beginning about 25 miles southeast of Nassau, curve southward for 100 miles. Georgetown, the principle settlement, has a magnificent harbor (site of the annual Out Island Regatta) and excellent accommodations. Many American notables have established "hide-away" residences in this area.
