ELEUTHERA,

with richly varied, rolling scenery, lies directly to the east of Nassau. Settlers from England established a remarkable democracy there in 1647, earning a niche in history. Increasingly favored by the well-to-do international set, Eleuthera has unique pure-pink sand beaches and picturesque settlements such as Rock Sound with oceanfront golf course, elegant clubhouse, pool, and accommodations, Governor's Harbour on a hill overlooking a harbor with fine accommodations, and Harbour Island with outstanding fishing.
