How to Travel to and from Gatwick Airport

Trains

Trains between Gatwick and Victoria Station run at 15 minute intervals during the day and hourly throughout the night. There are also fast and frequent trains from Gatwick which can connect you with main lines stations all over South East England.

There is a train every hour during the day to Guildford and Reading.

From Victoria journeys can be made throughout London and to many suburban destinations by the Underground.

Express Coaches

There are Express coaches from Gatwick to most parts of Britain, either direct or via London Coach Station (half a mile from Victoria rail station).

The main services are the 777 to Victoria Coach Station and the 747 and 727 routes to Heathrow and Luton airports.

Details of all coach services are available from the London Country Bus Information Desk in the international hall, open 07.30 to 20.30 hours, telephone Gatwick (0293) 502116.

Car Rental

Avis, Godfrey Davis and Hertz self-drive and chauffeur-driven cars can be hired from desks in the arrivals hall.
