New to this schedule

We are pleased to announce three new routes in this KLM uk Winter 1998/99 timetable, two of which are operated to key Italian destinations in conjunction with Alitalia. The first of these operates between London Stansted and Rome, and the second between Manchester and Milan (Malpensa), both launching on 30th November.

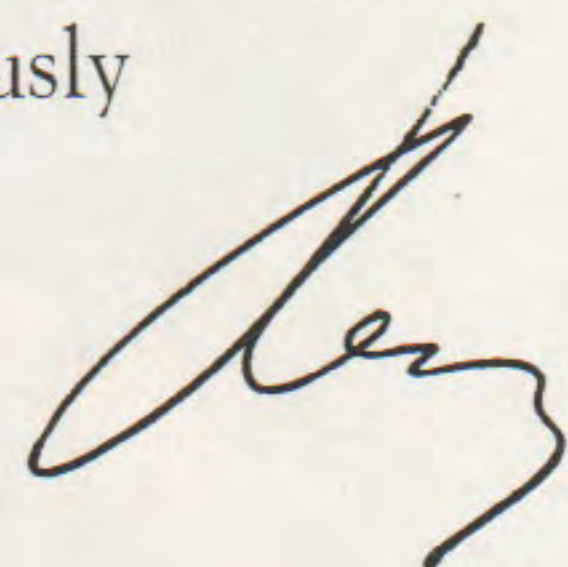

On the domestic front, a new Scotland-London trunk route is introduced with the commencement of this timetable: three flights a day between Glasgow and London City.

More frequencies for more convenience

Our Newcastle to London Stansted service has been increased from three to four flights a day - benefiting our south-east/north-east customers more than ever before.

Switch on Swedish routes

You will see in this timetable that our routes between London City and Malmö and Stockholm are now operated in conjunction with Braathens. These flights were previously operated with our other partner Malmö Aviation.
