Why not combine business with pleasure and fly south with us to Havana, Panama, Lima, Sao Paulo, Rio and Buenos Aires? Go elegantly on one of our deluxe DC-6 sleeper flights—or economically aboard a fine 4-engine tourist liner. Costs less than you think, too. For instance, you can go round trip round South America for as low as $912.00 from the Miami Gateway.

BRANIFF INTERNATIONAL AIRWAYS

Observing Twenty-five Years of Public Service

1928

1953

This is our silver anniversary year. Back in 1928, three Braniff pioneers, with a four-passenger Stinson started flying a 116-mile route, from Oklahoma City to Tulsa.

Observing Twenty-five Years of Public Service

That was the beginning. Since then, we've grown and helped others grow. We introduced I.L.S., JATO and "instant reservations". Then, we inaugurated the world's longest overland flight—non-stop from Lima to Rio. Recently, we added still another important first when we launched the new Super Convair 340.

We feel we've come a long way in improving our service and expanding our routes through nine countries in this hemisphere. But it's no time for resting on laurels. Instead, we're renewing our pledge to deliver the finest in flying the Americas!
