Announcing ADDITIONAL SERVICE

Delta flights 5 and 6 between Atlanta and Fort Worth have been resumed, with the approval of the Civil Aeronautics Board, due to a heavy volume of essential travel justifying transfer of certain Army equipment back to Delta Air Lines. These flights were discontinued early in the war when some airliners were released for military use.

Service on Delta's new route from Shreveport to New Orleans was authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board in August, to begin as soon as necessary ground installations are completed. When service is inaugurated over this new route, flights will depart from Fort Worth and Dallas for New Orleans, with intermediate stops at Shreveport, Baton Rouge, and Alexandria.

Until the new service is inaugurated, Delta will operate two special flights, Nos. 40 and 41, between Fort Worth and Jackson, Miss.

For full information telephone or write the nearest Delta Air Lines ticket office.
