We're Starting The Day Right For You!

WE'RE ASKING OURSELVES . . .

WHAT CAN WE DO to better serve travelers and shippers by air?

WHAT CAN WE DO to prove we're a "customer caring" airline?

WHAT CAN WE DO to avoid delays . . . to operate on time?

WHAT CAN WE DO to sell more people on flying The Metro Way?

AND THEN WE'RE DOING IT! Come fly with us. See for yourself. But we do have a problem. And that's when orders are received from the Federal Aviation Administration to delay flights on the ground or in the air. So please do not blame our employees when flights are delayed by the FAA to maximize safety in the air. We can assure you that all of our employees are working harder than ever to keep our flights on time — to give our customers the dependable service that has built Metro into the airline we all want it to be. Have a great day!
