Salute to RHODE ISLAND

From the leisurely arrival of Verrazzano's caravel in Narragansett Bay in 1524 to the flashing performance of today's Northeast Con-vair, there have been many changes in modes of transportation. Across this span of four centuries, too, an ever-increasing stream of visitors has come to historic, hospitable Rhode Island where "first" and "finest" are synonymous.

Rhode Islanders are justly proud of their long heritage of enterprise and independence, as evidenced by ... the first Baptist and Quaker Congregations ... the country's oldest synagogue ... the New World's first manufacturing plant. Rhode Islanders remember, too, that theirs was the first state to declare its independence of England.

Throughout the state, the atmosphere of these early days is preserved in outstanding examples of colonial architecture and sites of historic interest, while picturesque seaside vistas and scenes of inland country charm continue to delight the visitor.

IMPORTANT

YOUR RESERVATION WILL BE CANCELLED
(even though you hold a ticket)

UNLESS YOU RECONFIRM

YOU MUST RECONFIRM your intention to use your reservation at each city where you hold a reservation on a flight scheduled to leave more than 12 hours after your planned arrival in that city. This applies whether you are arriving by air or other means.

TO RECONFIRM simply inform the office at the city where you are boarding your flight of your intention to use your reservation. Do this on arrival or at your earliest convenience, but be sure to reconfirm at least six hours before scheduled flight departure.

Reconfirmation of reservations is now required by some airlines in order to free additional seats for immediate use.
