Can't make your flight

A little tied up

We understand that sometimes circumstances keep you from making your scheduled flight. But we also realize that if you don't let us know of your change in plans it costs us and, ultimately, you money. You see, if you are a no-show, we probably fly your seat empty. That costs us money and, as in every business, costs are passed on to customers. So if your plans change a quick toll-free call to our reservations office will save you money in the long run. And, we'll be able to serve you better. Please, don't be a no-show.

Call SkyWest: In Utah 1-800-662-4237; outside Utah 1-800-453-9417. Or Sun Aire: In California 1-800-472-4392; outside California 1-800-854-4347.

Please don't be a NO SHOW

SKYWEST SUNAIRE

Announcing a new and expanded Frequent Flyer Program!

As the SkyWest Frequent Flyer plan celebrates its first birthday, we wanted to give our loyal passengers a big thank you gift; so we've opened the plan to the ENTIRE SKYWEST/SUNAIRE SYSTEM. Now, after collecting sixteen Frequent Flyer coupons, you can travel to any of our twenty-eight cities in seven states—FREE! It's simple: When you check in for your SkyWest flight, identify yourself as a SkyWest Frequent Flyer, requesting the Frequent Flyer coupon. Our representative will fill out the bottom half of the coupon and give it to you. When you have collected sixteen coupons, send them and a completed "Free Ticket Request Form" to SkyWest for your free ticket.

Frequent Flyers

Your Best Connection, Just Got Better

You are allowed up to two stops (four on round trips) on your free ticket. Please submit your Frequent Flyer coupons for redemption only after you have accumulated the sixteen necessary for your free ticket. Also, please allow twelve working days for processing your request.

Call toll free: In Utah 1-800-662-4237; outside Utah 1-800-453-9417

The SkyWest Metroliner: both safe and efficient

The SkyWest/Sun Aire Metroliner is one of the safest and most efficient commuter airplanes available today. Manufactured by Fairchild Corporation in San Antonio, Texas, the Metro, as it is affectionately known, has proven over and over its reliability and superiority in the commuter airlines business.

According to SkyWest Chief Pilot Klen P. Brooks, the Metro provides the highest level of safety available, even in bad weather.

The turboprop engines and pressurization allow the Metro to be operated at high altitudes, above most winter storms and summer turbulence. Also, onboard weather radar enable pilots to choose a course clear of thunderstorm activity and the associated bumpy air. Finally, complete de-ice and anti-icing equipment prevent the buildup of ice which is very common in clouds and precipitation.

Of course, comfort is also an important part of the Metro. When a passenger steps into a SkyWest Metroliner, he'll find room and comfort closer to the airliner on the connecting flight than to the interiors most commuters offer.

In addition, of all fifteen-to-nineteen passenger commuter plances, only the Metro gives every passenger a window on one side and an aisle on the other. There's also extra room for briefcases and knees; air conditioning and pressurization like any true airliner.

SKYWEST SUNAIRE AIRLINES

On September 28, 1984, SkyWest Airlines, based in St. George, Utah, acquired Sun Aire Lines, headquartered in Palm Springs, California. This purchase helped to elevate SkyWest from the designation as a commuter airline to one of the largest regional carriers in the United States. With an extensive route structure stretching over twenty-eight cities in seven western states, SkyWest/Sun Aire Lines anticipates the transportation of over 650,000 passengers in 1986.

One reason for our success is the similarity of the aircraft used by the two companies. SkyWest/Sun Aire utilizes a fleet of thirty-one nineteen-passenger Fairchild Metroliners. The Metro, designed and manufactured by Fairchild Corporation in San Antonio, Texas, is one of the most popular aircraft in its class. This fully pressurized and air conditioned aircraft is consistent with our policy of providing fast, comfortable, and frequent service to the areas we serve.

On September 1, 1985, SkyWest/Sun Aire will completely merge, using the name of SkyWest Airlines. Your best connection just got better!
