Allegheny swings south,

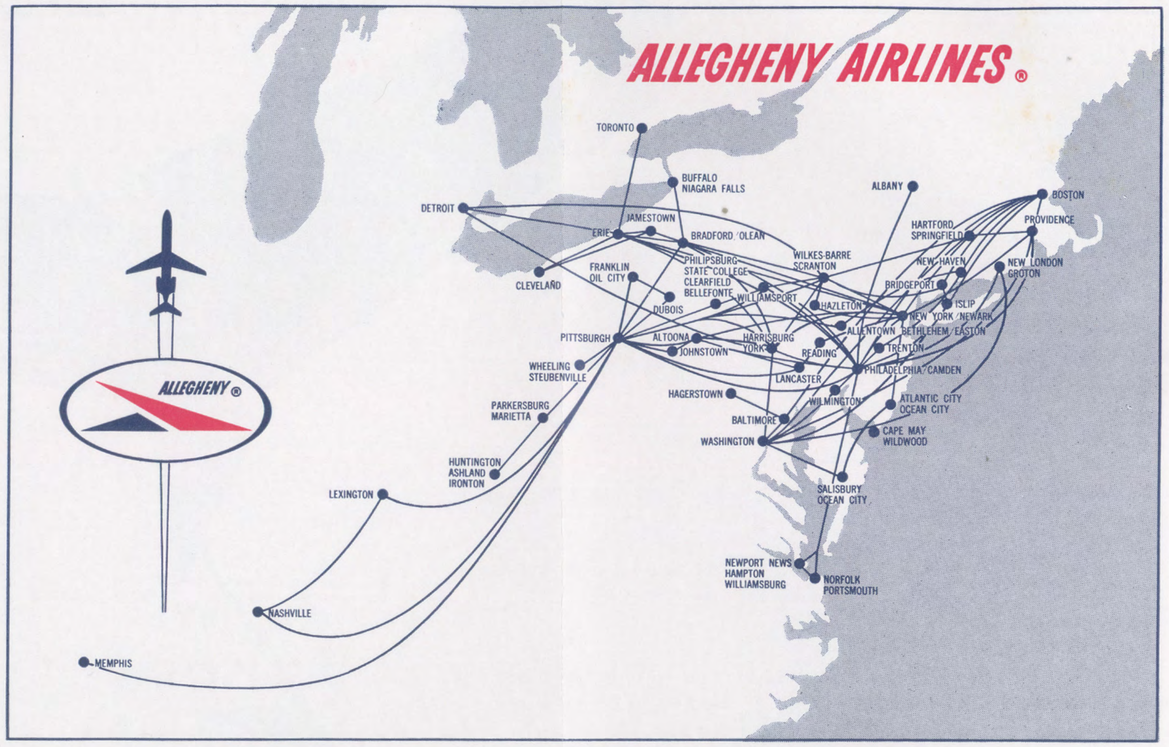

with new service between Pittsburgh and Memphis, including the only nonstop flights — on DC-9 Fanjets. Plus: New service between Pittsburgh and Nashville — with the only nonstop flights — using DC-9 Fanjet and Convair 580 jet-prop equipment. Another plus: the first nonstop service between Lexington and Pittsburgh, and Lexington and Nashville. Also, new direct DC-9 Fanjet flights from Boston and Philadelphia to Nashville and Memphis.

Allegheny swings north, too, with new nonstop jet-prop flights between Philadelphia and Albany, and direct flights between Washington and Albany.

Allegheny: Now with more nonstop service to more key cities — north and south — than ever before. Read all about it inside.
